MORE ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

This workshop complements the performance of Perfect, and will address its themes in more detail through performance, puppetry, physical theatre, storytelling and the creation of emotion through music. Participants will explore the key themes of sibling relationship and the idea of otherness. This workshop is taught in English and is adaptable for individual groups depending on their skill-sets and level of learning.

PERFECT - THE PERFORMANCE

Perfect is a performance about a young boy meeting his disabled sister for the first time. A story of anticipation and disappointment, acceptance, love, and the power of nature in our lives.

MEET TESSA BIDE

Bristol-based Tessa Bide is a puppeteer, actor, an experienced workshop leader and Arts Award Advisor. Tessa started puppeteering and performing with renowned masters of children's theatre and puppetry, Stuff and Nonsense Theatre Company. In 2012, Tessa embarked on her own theatre-making career. She is passionate about delivering high-quality theatrical experiences to children that inspire and excite but don't patronise. She aims to excite adults just as much as children. Tessa has made four Arts Council England-funded productions: The Tap Dancing Mermaid, Arnold's Big Adventure, The Melody Makers, A Strange New Space and of course: Perfect.
