MEET THE WORKSHOP LEADER

Apphia Campbell is originally from Florida and after graduating from college moved to New York where she performed Off-Broadway. In 2009, she moved to Shanghai, China where she sang blues, jazz and pop. In 2013 she wrote her critically acclaimed piece, 'Black Is The Color Of My Voice' and opened in Shanghai to rave reviews before performing at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe in 2014 where it sold out and has been touring the UK ever since...

She is a young actress and workshop leader, who is eager to share her knowledge about how she creates her own work, and gives a safe learning platform to inspire youngsters!
